IN AVVICINAMENTO AL QUARTO APPUNTAMENTO MONDIALE SSP

Il Mondiale SuperSport torna in azione a Barcellona. Trascorso un weekend di pausa, il Mondiale SuperSport è pronto a tornare in pista. È in arrivo l'atteso round in Catalunya, dove la maggior parte di team e piloti hanno girato in occasione del test disputatosi a fine marzo. Le informazioni raccolte saranno molto utili per questo quarto appuntamento del calendario.

Il tracciato di Barcellona dovrebbe essere molto favorevole ad Andrea, dove poco tempo fa ha compiuto i test con la MOTO E e di conseguenza ha ripassato e memorizzato il circuito. Dal ritorno da Assen Andrea e il Team hanno lavorato bene per cercare di fare uno step in avanti e portare a casa altri punti preziosi per il campionato. Un'attenzione particolare al consumo delle gomme, visto che l'asfalto catalano le stressa abbastanza. E occhio pure al meteo, un'eventuale pioggia può cambiare lo scenario in pista.

Andrea Mantovani:

Sono pronto per questo appuntamento spagnolo dove arriverò carico e motivato per il week end di gara. Dal ritorno di Assen, dove abbiamo raccolto dati importanti il Team ha effettuato ulteriori modifiche sulla moto e io ho continuato ad allenarmi. Ho voglia di fare molto bene senza pormi grosse aspettative ma ho solo tanta voglia di crescere insieme a questa Yamaha R6, un risultato come quello di Assen sarebbe ottimale... anche se mi impegnerò sempre al massimo per ottenere qualcosa di meglio. Un ringraziamento al Team EvanBros e in particolare a tutti gli sponsor che mi supportano in questa strepitosa avventura.

L'evento in Catalunya sarà trasmesso in diretta tv da Sky Sport MotoGP. Di seguito il programma con gli orari per seguire il round di Barcellona.

GETTING AROUND TO THE FOURTH SSP WORLD EVENT

The SuperSport World Championship is back in action in Barcelona. After a weekend break, the SuperSport World Championship is ready to get back on track. The awaited round in Catalunya is coming up, where most of the teams and riders rode during the test held at the end of March. The information collected will be very useful for this fourth appointment on the calendar.

The Barcelona track should be very favorable to Andrea, where he recently tested with the MOTO E and consequently reviewed and memorized the circuit. Since their return from Assen, Andrea and the team have worked well to try to take a step forward and bring home more valuable points for the championship. Particular attention should be paid to tire wear, given that the Catalan asphalt stresses them quite a bit. And also keep an eye on the weather, any rain could change the scenario on the track.

Andrea Mantovani:

I'm ready for this Spanish appointment where I'll arrive charged and motivated for the race weekend. Since the return to Assen where we have collected important data, further modifications have been made to the bike together with the team and I have continued to train. I want to do very well without setting myself high expectations but just a great desire to grow together with this Yamaha R6. A result like the one at Assen would be optimal... even if I will always do my best to get something better. Thanks to the EvanBros Team and in particular to all the sponsors who support me in this amazing adventure.

The event in Catalunya will be broadcast live on Sky Sport MotoGP. Below is the program with times to follow the Barcelona round.
